SATURDAY, OCT. 28, 1899.

As there is a sixty day limit on ad interim officials, the chances seem to favor the necessity of the appointment of a Minister of Finance before Minister Damon returns.

Alexander Young as a business man has shown that he can keep things moving along the lines of progress. The Interior Department calls for a progressive business administration and if Minister Young does not quickly set the machinery moving in that direction the public will know that the doldrums in which the officials have floated for a year or more are too powerful to be overcome.

The British yachtsman is a good capable fellow but he has yet considerable to learn in order to win supremacy from the Yankee. The international series won by the Columbia was, with the exception of the unfortunate accident to the Shamrock in the second race, the sharpest and best contest that has ever been held since the America brought the fog from England. Sir Thomas Lipton is a gentleman, a true sportsman and has made a hard straightforward fight for the prize. Had the Americans lost they would have been proud to have lowered their colors to such an antagonist.

THE MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR.

Since Mr. Dole decided not to reward John Hassinger, who has served in the Interior Department and the people fully forgive him, he is certainly to be congratulated in the appointment of Alexander Young as Minister of the Interior. The people readily recognize that Mr. Dole has upset every principle of his civil service scheme which has been flaunted before the world as the charming feature of Hawaii's administration under the present government.

Mr. Dole is wise in selecting his new official from those who, if not in full sympathy, are not opposed his method of administration. Mr. Young politically is an unknown quantity as regards the situation since Hawaii passed into the hands of the United States. It is to be supposed that he approves of the present local administration and if not in full sympathy he has at least offered no open opposition. As with Mr. Smith when given the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the people will know where he is when he acts. That Mr. Dole's friends sought material among the leaders of the local so-called Opposition, a party which wishes Hawaii to be wholly American, was an admission of weakness. The effort to strengthen the administration and gain new support was nothing if not a demonstration that the men retained in local office realize the constant loss of support they have experienced by failure to fulfill the demands of straightforward, patriotic Americanism.

Alexander Young's business career speaks for itself. He has forged his way to the front in the business community by hard work, honesty and sound common sense. He stood in with the annexation movement and it is to be hoped that he believes in the consummation of that American movement on American principle, and not in a defeat of that consummation by warding off so far as possible American sovereignty, by creating, through acts of the local government, an imperium in imperio that recognizes no vital power in the American constitution to way local affairs during the idiotic "transition period" which has been manufactured by the Happy Family.

WAITING TO HEAR FROM THE BATTLES

London, October 20.—Yesterday was one of the most exciting days known at the War Office since the crowd attended there to learn the result of the relief expedition to Gordon at Khartoum. The news that the Fifth Lancers had been engaged, brought many ladies and other friends of the regiment to enquire for news.

The greatest intelligence to-day, seems to be the report of the capturing of a train with officers at Fandavagte, because it was understood that the whole cross-country line was regularly patrolled. As no correspondent are allowed at the front, it is impossible to gain definite information, but it is known that General Sir George White has been making some extensive movements of the troops in that neighborhood and developments are hourly expected. It is rumored that Commandant General Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious, combined attack, and the general belief here is that unless something unexpected happens, General Sir George White will maintain the defensive.

The Queen Wins God Speed.

London, Oct. 20.—The Queen drove from Balmoral Castle to the Ballater Barracks yesterday to bid farewell to the Gordon Highlanders, who are going to the Cape. After reviewing the troops the Queen addressed them as follows: "I am pleased to see you looking so well and fit for duty. You are going on for long service and I wish you all God speed. I hope you will return safe and well."
